

THE CENTER FOR JEWISH EDUCATION PRESENTS

Meet the Master Book Club:
Mimi Brodsky Chenfeld, Early Childhood Educator

For more than 46 years, Mimi Brodsky Chenfeld has playfully and lovingly taught teachers, parents and children of all ages in Canada, Taiwan and throughout the US. Since 1970 she has taught in numerous schools and programs in Columbus, Ohio. Her favorite student evaluation is from a 6 year old boy who dubbed her “The Queen of Fun!”

This book club experience ends with a personal visit from Mimi!

3 Dates, 2 Books, 1 Concert!

December 10: *Teaching in the Key of Life

Read this inspiring book, then join us for a book club chat. This collection of lively and inspiring essays from Mimi Brodsky Chenfeld will help you remember why you became a teacher! She writes of classrooms filled with laughter, love and the joyous celebration of learning.

7:00pm-9:00pm * CJE

February 4: *Creative Experiences for Young Children

The second book in our series is a refreshing and passionate read that will inspire educators to keep the joy, adventure - in a word, FUN—of learning through creative and challenging teaching. This book focuses on six universal life themes...and offers tons of ideas for teaching all kinds of children with creative, hands-on techniques.

7:00pm-9:00pm * CJE

March 18: Workshop/Concert with Mimi!

Join us for an evening with Mimi. Share in the laughter and love of learning with her as she tells stories and teaches, interweaving music and dance. It's a night you will remember for a long, long time! You do not need to be a book club member to participate in this event. All teachers are welcome!

7:00pm-9:00pm * PH JCC Auditorium

*Book sets will be available for purchase at CJE beginning November 16 for $50. Educators in CJE partner schools who purchase their book sets at CJE are eligible for 50% re-imbusement through Crane funding.
